

PARBICA Workshop: UNESCO Memory of the World Programme

Date: 9 November 2023

Time: 10.00 a.m. (Fiji time)

The purpose of the workshop is to provide PARBICA members with an overview of the UNESCO Memory of the World Programme. The focus will be on the Memory of the World documentary heritage registers and the processes for submitting and accessing nominations for inscription to a register.

At the end of the workshop you will have information on:

- recent changes to the nomination process
- how to develop a nomination for inscription to a register
- how nominations are assessed
- where to find relevant online information
- who to contact for support

Memory of the World synergies with PARBICA and some relevant MOWCAP activities will also be discussed during the workshop.

There will be time during the workshop for participants to discuss the programme, identify possible nominations and identify barriers to preparing nominations.
